

Conflict

Stories are usually based on a conflict. The conflict may be a problem to solve or a goal that the main character wants to reach.

Types of Conflicts Include:

- Individual against individual
- Individual against nature
- Individual against society
- Individual against technology
- Individual against the supernatural

Plot

The action of a story is its plot. The plot follows a pattern of rising and falling action that can be described as the story's arc.

